

Sturgis Library Meeting Rooms

The Sturgis Library has a meeting space available for use by individuals or groups. The Lowell Meeting Room on the main level of the library seats up to 65 people, and is equipped with a projection screen. Free wireless internet access is available.

Meeting room space is available during library hours only.

There is a different rental rate charge for non-profits and for-profits. Nonprofit organizations must offer their programs free of charge to qualify for the nonprofit rate. Rates are as follows for up to four hours:

- Nonprofit rate is $25 for up to four hours
- Forprofit rate is $100 for up to four hours

The library can provide users with the following equipment:

- Coffee maker
- Slide Projector
- Overhead Projector
- VCR/DVD/Computer Projector
- Tables
- Podium
- Microphone

Groups need to set up tables and chairs and put chairs away when done. The room must be left as it was found. Groups must fill out a Sturgis Library Meeting Room Reservation form. Meetings need to finish 15 minutes prior to closing time. See library hours below. Payment for meeting room rental must be received prior to the meeting.

For more information on reserving the meeting room, please contact Marcella Curry, Assistant Director/Adult Services Librarian at (508) 362-6636 or info@sturgislibrary.org.
