Sturgis Library Archives

MS. 197
Leonard, Boult, & Hinckley Family Collection

Extent: 2 clamshell boxes and 1 oversized box

Scope and Content Note: The collection consists of photographs and documents related to the Leonard, Boult, and Hinckley families of Osterville, MA. These families were prominent members of the Osterville community. Andrea Leonard was a journalist, Katie Hinkley was the longtime Librarian, and James Leonard started the J.M. Leonard Insurance Agency. The collection also includes a series of letters between William Lloyd Garrison, Jr. and members of his family. W. L. Garrison was one of the founders of the Osterville Library, and son of the famed abolitionist.
